Notice of Practice Closure

Dear Patient:

After very careful deliberation and consideration, I have decided to retire from my medical practice in Toronto at the end of this summer. The decision has not been an easy one, and I have consulted with many people close to me in my life before making this very difficult decision. I joined the Toronto practice in 1992, taking over Dr. Burgess practice with Drs. Kennedy, Morris and Sarlie. Now in 2020 there is Dr. Kennedy and myself left.

My last date in the office will be Thursday August 27, 2020.

It has been an honour and privilege looking after you for the last 28 years.

Sincerely,

Gerald Laudanski, M.D.

Finding a New Doctor

It is advisable that you find a new physician as soon as possible. I recognize that changing physicians may be stressful, but I encourage you to seek continuity of care with the following suggestions to find a new doctor for yourself:

1. Ask family and friends to ask their doctors if they would take you in.
2. Contact "Health Care Connect" at 1-800-445-1822.
3. Contact RSRS (see below). They often are aware of physicians accepting new patients.

You should attend a walk-in clinic closest to your home or the emergency room at the nearest hospital for any urgent condition.

Your Medical Record

I am required by the College of Physicians & Surgeons to store all original patient records for a period before they can be destroyed. I've selected RSRS, a physician-managed company to safely and securely store all patient records from my practice. RSRS will assist you in obtaining a certified copy for yourself.

I strongly encourage each of you to arrange for the retrieval of your own medical record.

It is a very important file for your continued care and should be accessible at all times, even (and especially) in the absence of a new doctor. I've included an infographic illustrating 10 reasons why. Note: There is a fee for the transfer of medical records, but it is not prohibitive. Please do not delay in making arrangements by contacting RSRS today. Please proceed on the web to:
